

WAIT

Rowan Rogers: 4 June 2017

WELCOME: What are you currently waiting for?

WORSHIP: Worship together or on your own.

WORD: Read: Acts 2:1-4; Numbers 11:24-30 and John 7:37-39

1. When and how did you first learn about God the Holy Spirit? What was your reaction?
2. What in your opinion is the difference between the Holy Spirit's activity in the Old Testament period and his work since the day of Pentecost?
3. What do you think is the purpose of the Spirit coming on you?
4. The Holy Spirit is all-powerful, so how is it possible for us to resist and quench him?
5. How do you know if you are Spirit-filled?
6. How does being spirit-filled affect your life?

WORKS IN: Where do you specifically need the comfort, the assurance, the guidance or the power of the Holy Spirit? Pray for each other (yourself if alone) inviting the ministry and filling of the Holy Spirit. In deep surrender wait on the Spirit expecting to receive something, be open to new possibilities, anticipate and be ready for what he will do. Then pray for other needs.

WORKS OUT: Carl Sandburg (poet and writer) said: the ugliest word in the English language is "exclusive". Find time this week to be gracious and welcoming toward someone who feels hurt by being excluded, marginalized, rejected, pushed aside, or left out.
